

Chinese Ambassador to Singapore, Cao Chongming, meets with Yiu Chi Shing, Standing Committee Member of the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference, President of the Hong Kong General Association for the Promotion of Peaceful Reunification of China, and Chairman of POPULAR Holdings Limited.

On February 4, Chinese Ambassador to Singapore, Cao Chongming, met with Yiu Chi Shing, Standing Committee Member of the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference (CPPCC), President of the Hong Kong General Association for the Promotion of Peaceful Reunification of China, and Chairman of POPULAR Holdings, along with his wife at the embassy.

Ambassador Cao first extended his New Year greetings to Mr. Yiu, praising his long-standing efforts in strengthening economic and trade cooperation between Mainland China, Hong Kong, and Singapore. He also expressed his admiration for Mr. Yiu's commitment to philanthropy and public welfare.

Mr. Yiu provided insights into Hong Kong's economic development and social stability, expressing his willingness to continue contributing to the development of bilateral relations between China and Singapore.